Let's Read Together

English With Deen

Vrooom!Vrooom! Vrooom! Vrooom!
Ahnaf was playing with his favorite red car.
His little sister Armiya was sitting beside him.
Ahnaf's father gave them the car to play together. But Ahnaf does not let anyone touch it.

While playing, Armiya came crawling to him. “Car Car! My car” Armiya said and tried to take the car.

Ahnaf quickly pulled his car away and said, “No! You always break my toys! I will not share it with you.”

Ahnaf hid the red car deep under the sofa.

Seeing his favorite toy vanish, Armiya started crying.

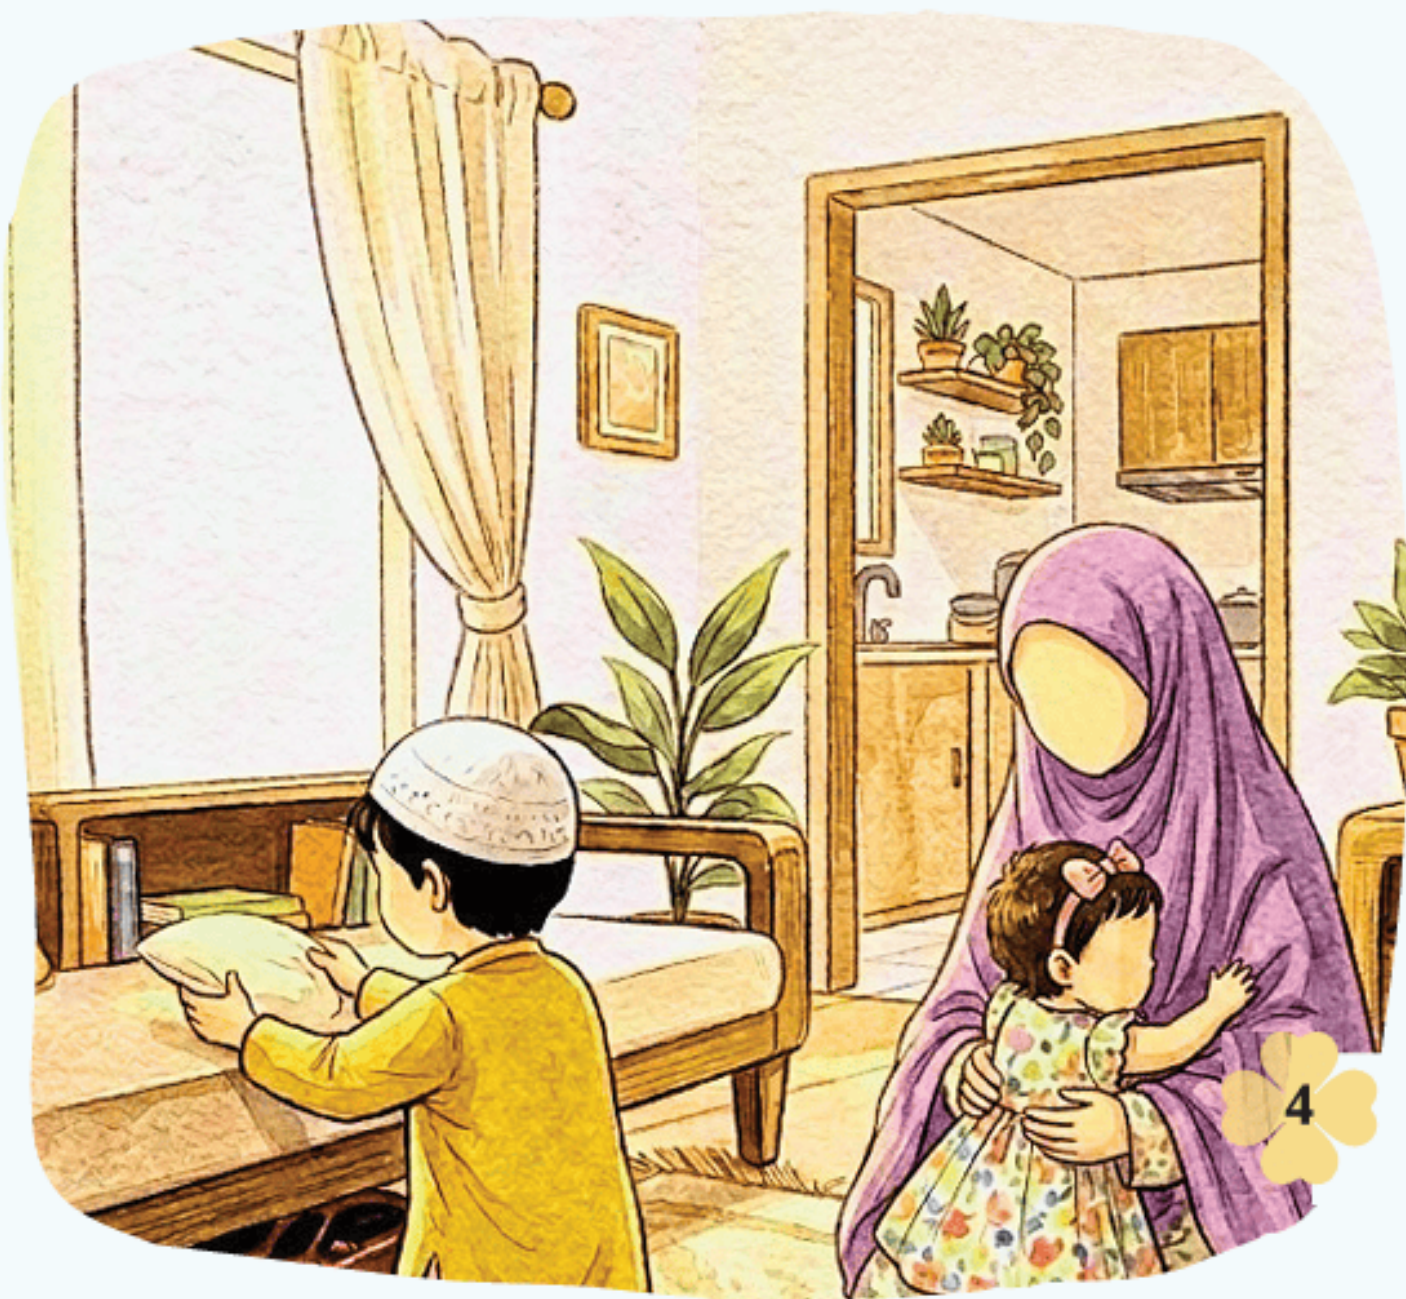

Ahnaf felt a little bad but he ignored it.

Hearing the loud cry, their Mother came from the kitchen. "What's going on here, kids?" she asked.

Ahnaf said, "Nothing, Ma,". And he mumbled "I... I don't know why she's crying."

Ma sensed something but as Armiya was crying, she took her inside the room.

Ahnaf thought to himself,
"This is good! Ma didn't see the car. No one saw. I'm safe."

That night after dinner, Ma took Ahnaf into the garden.

Ma said, "You know Ahnaf, even when no one is watching our acts, Allah sees everything we do, everything we hide, he knows when we lie."

Ahnaf was surprised. He asked, "Everything? Even under the sofa?"

Ma put her hand on Ahnaf's shoulder and said, "yes sweetie, even under the sofa, even inside our hearts, Allah sees everything and watches over us. He has two angels "Kiramaan and Katebiin" to write down all of our good and bad actions. Allah dislikes doing bad things, you know this, right?" Ahnaf said, "yes."

Then Ahnaf thought to himself, He loves Allah, he wants to be loved by Allah too. He thought about the red car. He lied to Ma. Armiya felt bad for the car.

What should he do now?
